Subject: Re: Helveston family question

Good Morning Else,

Thanks so much for your help and the help of Sherry and Renee who have previously been drug into the Helveston family saga. I will try to fill you in on what I know (not much) and what I am guessing at (lots).

1.) I have searched everywhere for a Philip Helveston and can find no evidence of him anywhere near the Mississippi Territory. It seems more logical that the parents of Mary, Godfrey, Peter, and Richard were Godfrey and Rachel and that Philip was possibly Godfrey's father. Godfrey Helveston was a Tory, which of course makes sense, as half the population of the Mississippi Territory were Tories. He is listed in Loyalists in the Southern Campaign of the Revolutionary War by Murtie June Clark Vol.1, page 66 as Godfrey Helveston and vol. 3, page 442 as Godfrey Helfenston/Helferston. He was mustered in at Savannah. Interestingly, in the company right above the listing for Godfrey on page 66 one finds Reuben Barrow. There is a Philip Helveston near Savannah, Georgia who signs a Loyalist document in 1774 and then has his land confiscated and is banished from Georgia in 1782. I have found no further evidence of him after that. There is also a Philip Helviston in Petitions for Land From the South Carolina Council Journals, vol. V: 1757-1765 and vol. VI: 1766-1770. One is for land on the Santee River in 1764 and the other is with Margaret Helviston on the Wateree River in 1768. This could be the same person, possibly Godfrey's father. Or not.

2.) In answer to your question as to why Godfrey is not the known name of the children's father, I can only surmise that researchers didn't have access to the early land records from the Mobile area. Of course, the easy solution is that he was Godfrey Philip. the problem one has with that is the date of 1774 for Philip. Godfrey was clearly born abt. 1764 from the early census records. Could they be brothers? Obviously this can't be the Philip mentioned in #1 above if he was born in 1774. Philip (1774) is a complete mystery to me.

3.) My sister-in-law, Lynn (who Sherry and Renee have communicated with) suggested that "Margarita" may not have been Mary and she was the only child baptized because she was not expected to live and she didn't. If this were true, it would also explain why she was not in the family bible which was written down much later and they would in all likelihood not know of her. As I said earlier, I have a lot more questions than answers.

4.) I have looked at other researchers on the Barrows and there is some confusion because there are multiple Richard and Reuben/Rubin Barrows. What I believe is that our Richard is the father of Rubin and Rachel. There are indications that Rubin lived briefly on the Tombigbee and then moved to Louisiana where he had children named Richard and Rachel. (I tend to put a lot of emphasis on given names recurring in families, maybe too much). I also think that the baptismal records you found are for Rubin's children Levi and Vincent. Another coincidence is that when Richard Barrow disappears from the records, Rachel Helveston's land ownership double from 640 acres to 1280 acres. I assume that she inherited it when Richard died or was given it because Richard went to live with Rubin in Louisiana. The Barrow researchers seem to have totally missed the Barrows in the Mississippi Territory. They say they left Georgia/ North Carolina and simply have no idea what happened to Richard and never mention Rubin being anywhere but Louisiana. Nor do they account for where Vincent and Levi appeared from.

5.) Other researchers have said they believe Mary Helveston married William Baldwin. I believe they did not have access to the Godfrey Helveston bible. The bible states that, "Frances E. Baldwin dau. of John E. Baldwin & Mary his wife, was born 6/12/1808". I could find no evidence of a John E. Baldwin anywhere until I ran across a reference to him in Residents of the Southeastern Mississippi Territory, Washington and Baldwin Counties, Alabama, Wills, Deeds and

Hi Butch,

I visited the Pascagoula Genealogy Library today and shared the quest for "Polly" with Sherry & Renee. We are puzzled about several things. But I have found some good material that I hope will help you.

1. In the Helveston records located in the Helveston Family File we see that researchers have listed Phillip Helveston, born ca 1774 as the common ancestor of the Mississippi Helveston's. Do you have another name? Where did the name Phillip come from? All the records list 4 children of Phillip. (1) Mary born Nov 12, 1792 (2) Peter born Jan 20, 1795, (3) Richard born Nov 24, 1800 and (4) Godfrey born Apr 22, 1803. No name of a wife for Phillip is ever listed in those files.
2. If Godfrey Helveston and Rachel Barrow are actually the parents of the four listed above, then why would Godfrey not be the known name instead of Phillip?
3. Godfrey Helveston and Rachel Barrow had Mary, aka Margarita, aka Polly, and if she is the correct Mary, the other three children's baptisms were not in the Catholic records. I believe that is because 1792-1794 was a critical time for protestant families in Spanish West Florida. During that time there were many baptisms of protestant infants performed and recorded by the traveling priest, who then recorded the rite in the Mobile Diocese.
4. It appears from the records I have located, (listed below) Rachel Barrow's father was Richard Barrow. Richard Barrow appears to be living next to Godfrey Helveston in the Tensaw/Tombigbee/Mobile River area on Barrow's Creek. Godfrey Helveston appears to have died by 1809 and Richard Barrow is deceased after 1815 and before the 1816 record.
5. I checked the Mobile Diocese Index and found the following:
 - Polly Helveston baptism in book 91, page 227
 - John Levi Barrow baptism in book 62, page 160
 - Vincent Barrow baptism in book 47, page 117
 - (There are no other Helveston's or Barrow's listed).

In Love's Legacy by Jacqueline O. Vidrine, (a wonderful collection of marriage records from the Mobile Diocese), she has in the appendix a list of landholders in West Florida. The list is drawn from Elias Durnford's 1772 map, "A Plan of the River Mississippi, Iberville, Mobile and Bay of Pensacola" I am not sure if the two of the landowners listed below are on the Mobile River. They are probably on the Mississippi River.

Else,

Thanks for your attention in this matter. I am sure that you have a lot more resources than I do. I have a copy of the baptismal record that is very hard to read. I have requested another copy of the records from the archdiocese of Mobile. The archivist there said he would probably get to it this week. I will let you know what I find out, if anything. Maybe it will be a better copy and I can see Polly in it be I don't really think so. If I can be of any assistance to you I would be glad to help. By the way, aside from the fact that you confused me about Polly, you cleared up a problem I have worked unsuccessfully on for years. In the same entry it shows her mother as Rachel Barrow. I have been searching for Rachel's maiden name for ever, and there it was. So you created a problem for me and solved another one. Keep up the great work. You are correct. It is very difficult for the average researcher find information like this.

Hi Butch,

Thanks for your letter.

In reference to "Polly" Helveston of July 3, 1794, Volume 16 of the Journal, page 38:

This record came from a transcription of Book 2 of the Mobile Catholic Baptisms, and I copied for the Journal as the donor had typed it. We believe the typed pages were transcribed by Bro. Jerome Lepre, a Catholic Priest of New Orleans. If you have the original baptism and only Margarita is listed, I really do not know where he could have gotten the "Polly" from. He carefully transcribed and put together families. Perhaps he has her name in another transcribed record that we are not aware of. The Spanish and/or Portuguese priests often wrote the Hispanic name instead of or with the protestant name. I will try to see if Bro. Jerome was working on the Baldwin family and if he had any reason to write "Polly" on the record. I believe Margarita must be your Mary, but of course that will have to be searched out a bit further. The transcriptions of Book 2 of the Mobile Catholic Baptisms was only a listing of hundreds of entries, just as I entered in the Journal and Bro. Lepre, now deceased, contributed many of his transcribed names for an index we also published. I will be happy to follow up on this and any other possible Helveston entries for you. I hope we can figure this out.

In reference to Volume 17: That entry, indicating a marriage, was from the above record.

Thanks again for pointing this out to me. We try to put in the Journal those many records that are hard for the average researcher to find. We also try very hard to be accurate, so this will be a nice challenge to find more info on Mary/Polly/Margarite.

Subject: Helveston family question

Hello,

My name is Butch Helveston and I am doing research on the Helveston family of the gulf coast. I am writing in reference to information in two issues of your Journal. One is in Volume 16, No. 2,3,4, Special Issue, December 1999, Page 18. The other is in Volume 17, January to December 2000, Page 36. Both of them refer to the baptismal record of Polly (Margarita) Helveston, daughter of Godfrey Helveston and Rachel Barrow. The record is from the Mobile Catholic Baptisms, Book 2. I am aware of a daughter Mary for Godfrey and Rachel. According to a family bible there were 4 siblings. They were Mary, Richard, Godfrey Jr. and Peter. I also know that Polly is many times a nickname for Mary, I have never actually seen the name Polly used although I have made an assumption that Polly Baldwin in an early census may be Mary because she was married to a John Baldwin. I have a copy of the original Spanish baptismal record and it doesn't use the name Polly. It only uses Margarita. Of course, this person isn't necessarily Mary, as it would usually translate as Margaret. Still, I am wondering about your source for the use of the name Polly. I am hoping that you may have information that I don't possess and can further enlighten me. I can always use enlightenment. If this is somewhat confusing let me be as clear as I can. I would like to know why you used the name Polly in connection with your listing of the baptismal record. If you have any other information about these early Helveston individuals, I would welcome it. Thank you so much for your time.

River forms basin, gives community its name

By NANCY JO BUNTYN

Mississippi Press Lucedale Bureau

LUCEDALE — The everchanging Pascagoula River formed a low depression in the terrain slightly southwest of the center of George County and early settlers attached the name Basin to their community.

"Water ran around and formed a cup or saucer in the earth," said Rev. Harvell Jackson, a George County historian.

Basin sits about 12 miles from George County's only municipality, Lucedale, and has 893 registered voters.

Peter Helveston of South Carolina and John B. Goff of North Carolina settled here in 1878.

The area was originally known as Helveston. Later it picked up the name Basin because of the actual river basin, which is still referred to as Goff's Basin, according to community citizens.

During the late 19th century several families, especially from the Carolinas, pitched camps along the riverbanks in the White Creek area.

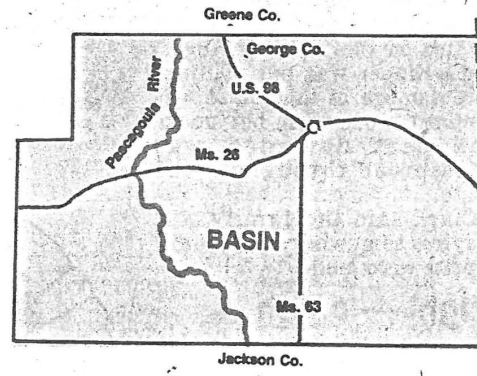

"People came here hunting work. There was plenty of work here then ... the log business," said 90-year-old Ollie Fairley of Basin.

Fairley's father, Ransom Fairley, was among those early settlers.

Timber attracted old families such as the Byrds, Nymans, Fairleys, Helvestons and Goffs.

These loggers used the Pascagoula River to transport timber to sawmills in Moss Point and Pascagoula.

"I remember a time when you couldn't see the water for all the rafts of logs piled together," Fairley said.

The timbermen would bundle about 200 logs and raft them down the river, a process which took about three days according to Fairley. He did not know what price a raft brought once it got to Pascagoula.

One or two men would ride the raft to the coast.

Although of a quiet, impul- sive nature, there was a big spot of tenderness in his heart, and he was ever ready to do an act of mercy to relieve the sick and distressed. Born near his present place of residence in the year 1816 when this country was comparatively a wilderness, the home of the bear and prowling wolf, he pass- ed his early days in the same manner as did Boone and others. Helveston Family

Forward

The Helveston Family of George County and Jackson County, Miss. can be traced to Phillip Helveston born 1774 in Georgia. The Bible belonging to Peter Helveston, Phillip's son, was used extensively in compiling this history. I believe all the Helvestons in our area to be the same family even though the name may be spelled Helverson, Helveson, or Helveston.

This history will be updated annually so if your family was Omitted, it may still be included. The history includes fifty different surnames and their connection to the Helveston family line. I hope to add more information on Peter's brother, Godfrey Helveston of Green County if it becomes available. He was born on April 22, 1803, according to the Bible, and he married Frances Debosque (Dubose) in 1823. The research for this book has taken over five years and I hope Helveston descendants will enjoy tracing their connection. Many persons contributed to the material in this book, and I can't name them all, so will you please take this as a special "Thank you" from the bottom of my heart.

Note: Peter Helveston married Isabelle Beckham, and contrary to many articles that have been published, she was not a Copeland. I have included a copy of the Bible so there will be no mistake. They were married December 2, 1914.

I don't believe Phillip Helveston ever came to Miss. all the census records that I have checked don't list him in Jackson or Green County. The Bible lists Mary Helveston born Nov.13, 1792; Peter Helveston born Jan.20,1795; Richard Helveston born Nov.24,1800; and Godfrey Helveston born Apr.22,1803.

Further research shows Peter Helveston listed as a Corporal on a list of Jackson Countians who served in the War of 1812. He is also on a list of slave owners during the period 1815-1828. His name first appears on the 1820 census of U.S. in Jackson County Miss.

His son Godfrey Helveston appears on a list of Justice of Peace in 1864.

I also hope to be compiling the family of Pichard Helveston, a brother of Peter Helveston. Richard married Susan Fountain. Mr. Dan Malone married 12/18/1895 to Lucy Isabelle Helveston, grand daughter of Richard.

I will show just a few pages of this family in this book.

For now I Will begin with Phillip Helveston as the first generation and so on:

- 10 1. Phillip Helveston, b. ca 1774, d.
m.
2. Mary Helveston, b. 11/13/1792, d.
m.
2. Peter Helveston, b. 1/20/1795, d. 6/7/1849; m. 12/4/1814
to Isabelle Beckham, b. ca 1797, d.
2. Richard Helveston, b. 11/24/1800, d. / / ; m. / /1824 to Susannah (Susan) Fountain, b. 3/25/1804, d. 7/24/1878.
2. Godfrey Helveston, b. 4/22/1803, d. / / ; m. 1823
to Frances Debosque (Dubose), b. / / , d. / /

~~1.~~ 2. Peter Helveston, b. 1/20/1795, d. 6/7/1849; m. 12/4/1814 to Isabelle Beckham, b. 1797

✓ 3. Godfrey Helveston, b. 2/6/1816, d. 2/26/1893; m. 9/20/1838
to Sarah Reeves, b. 4/19/1820, d. 10/6/1891, she was the daughter of William and Mary Copeland Reeves.

I don't know if they had anymore children or not, but the 1850 census lists Isabelle with a son named Phillip Helveston born about 1833, he was 17 years old in 1850. And I found a Phillip Helveston about his age married Lula Ball, born 1/11/1876, now
I believe this to be a younger brother of Godfrey Helveston.
But I still have to prove or disprove it.
